degree of preservation, was found among other articles a letter directed to Mr. Thurston, in regard to ask for a balloon.

The balloon ascended from Adrian at 9 o'clk on the 16th of September last with Mr Bannister and Thurston in it; depended on the farm of Mr. J. Dingo, in Ogden, near Knight's Station, at about 10 o'clock, and the escapade occurred at about half past ten o'clock, owing to the removal of the car-rope's and other weights, while Mr. Thurston was trying to open the valve—when, as bystanders expressed it, the balloon bounded up "like a rocket," carrying Mr T. as above stated. It must have been within 20 or 30 minutes of this time that the valve gave way, and he fell.

Democracy as now Declared.

In the famous Senate debate upon the question of slavery in the Territories — where Douglas cut himself off from the North by his Dred Scott doctrines, and got kicked out of his party by the South for attempting to evade the necessary consequence of these doctrines—in that memorable debate, Southern Senators declared down the law to the National Democratic party to abide by in the campaign of 1860—and the politicians of that party who hope for office or emolument will have to walk the chalk. Two most decisive, dogmatic declarations which have ever yet been made upon the great question of "niggerism," were then furnished by Southern Senators. Senator Brown wished the Senate to know that they would force the question of protecting their property into the next Presidential contest. Senator Mason followed in Brown's track, and if Kansas be a state to-morrow, could pass a law prohibiting slavery, why then, anybody on that platform could get a vote to Southern votes; and Senators Gwin, Davis and Green followed suit in the same line.

As specimens of the speeches, we give the following. Mr. Brown of Mississippi, said:

"He gave the Senate warning that if the Legislature of Kansas legislates to prohibit slavery, the people of his State, and a large portion of the South, would come to Congress demanding protection. They demanded equality and equal rights. This, he repeated, was an element which must enter into the next Presidential contest, and it was right that they all and know where they stood."

Mr. Mason of Virginia said:

"He claimed to know this, and he dared no clamorous voice south of the Potomac, but if his Kansas-Nebraska act were not held to be interpreted to recall the rights of the South in the Territories from both Congress and the Supreme Court to the inhabitants of the Territories [whatever belongs to Southern States to call be recreant to their honor] if they have any candidate standing upon such a platform a solitary vote. And it has to be the object for dissolution of the party, let it be dissolved—and the sooner the better. They would find no one to lift or plank for the reconstruction of the platform on such a basis in the whole Southern States."

Mr. Green of Missouri said:

"They had only a rumor of the act of Kansas abolishing slavery; when they had the clear information that such an act had been passed, of the rights of slaveholders could not be protected otherwise, he would bring in a bill repealing the organic act of the Territory."

The great body of Democratic Senators agreed to these sentiments. Only three—(Douglas, Pugh and Broderick)—presumed to oppose them in the slightest degree. The party will adopt the platform demanded at Charleston, and whoever opposes it will do so out of the party. "Democracy," as known by an organization, goes for the protection of slavery in the Territories, under what it claims as the sanction of the Constitution. And in this it is consistent—for in the Constitution carries slavery into the Territories (as Judge Taney, President Buchanan, and Senator Douglas say) then the slaveholders have a right to claim protection for their property in them. We deny Douglas's doctrine—but if we believed it, we could not deny the right claimed by the slave holders.

HOW THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT MAY PAY OUT ITS REVENUES WITHOUT AN APPROPRIATION.—Hon. R. H. Gillett, long connected with the law department of the general government, has communicated an elaborate article to the Washington Union, showing that the Post Master General has the power to apply the accruing postal revenues to the support of the department. He says the legal power of the department rest almost wholly on the 4th section of the 16th, and 2d section of the 17th sections of the act of 1825, adopted under the auspices of Judge McLean, who was then at the head of that department. After examining the different laws which have been passed, Mr. Gillette arrives at the following conclusion:

"The department should avoid the payment of moneys into the Treasury at the six places named in the Sub-Treasury act, because it can draw no money from the Treasury except on appropriation. The department can use those appropriations which it now has, if any, and must, for the future, rely upon its own income from postages, &c., to meet its engagements, and these it has the legal power so to reduce that it can discharge them. In every contract not otherwise expressly provided by act of Congress, the Postmaster General has reserved the right to diminish the services and thus lessen the expense. The department can legally go any length it may not have the means of conferring all those advantages to which the public have been accustomed. The idea of keeping up the present extent of service and paying in drafts drawn on or by the department when there are no funds to pay with, is wholly unauthorized by law, and would be a gross violation of duty, because no executive officer of the government has the power to contract a debt when no means of payment are provided."

DEPARTURE OF SHIPS ON AND BAR OF THE MISSISSIPPI.—A dispatch from New Orleans, dated March 9, says that 60 000 bales of cotton were then detained on shipboard on and ince the bar, in consequence of the vessels being unable to cross the bar. The cotton is mostly destined for Liverpool, and the delay to which it is subjected is likely to prove very serious to parties interested.

Among the ships detained below on the bar were eight from Boston, having on board several thousand tons of ice.

LOUISIANA SUGAR CROP.—The New Orleans True Delta sums up the sugar crop of 1858 at 321,482 hogsheads, of which 181,682 have already been received leaving 144,861 yet to go forward. Of the number received, 85,510 hhds were shipped by sea from Franklin and New Orleans, and 96,165 up the river. Assuming that the balance of the crop will be shipped in the same proportion, the True Delta calculates that the amount of the crop yet to come up the Mississippi is 74,000 hogsheads of sugar, and 160,000 barrels of molasses.

GODEY FOR APRIL is a splendid number—It contains 6 engravings, and the usual quantity of excellent reading matter. Terms $3 per year, or two copies for $5. Address L. A. Godey, No. 323 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

In two hundred and seventeen towns in New Hampshire Goodwin's majority is 3762. Eleven towns remain to be heard from. The Republicans of Portsmouth had a public rejoicing over the victory on Monday.

And Republicans have chosen eight and possibly nine out of the twelve State Senators. They also count upon 74 majority in the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM H. MCCRILLIS is the name of a member elect to the N. H. House of Representatives. He is returned from the land of "Gosben" in Sullivan county.

WAR PORTENTS. The chiefly well informed Paris correspondent of the New York Courier des E. ats Unis recently wrote to that journal:

"Three days ago a gentleman, who fills a high office in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperor is irrevocably taken; and war will take place in a month or two at the latest.' Napoleon III will command in person the principal body of the army; it is almost his aspiration, the oldest and most ardent. He has already sent to him the possessed the genius of his uncle as a politician; he wishes also to show that he has inherited as in military genius. A Bonaparte ought to be a soldier. The determination of the Emperor is well known, and matters are so far advanced that all opinion is henceforth abandoned as useless and dangerous. No one wanted war yesterday; everybody will wish it to-morrow."

A CHAPTER FROM THE HISTORY OF SICILY.—The Albany correspondence of the Utica Herald relates the following as told him by one who knew the facts:

"Something less than five years ago I knew a woman, young, beautiful and fascinating. She was a loved wife and a happy, loving mother. The ugly cloud of exalted social position, she had a manly, upright husband, and diplomatist honors. That woman became a relentless victim to the seducer's devilish arts. Her child to-day is an alms-house 'boarder,' her husband a sot, and she a degraded outcast.

"The seducer now comes before the world as the avenger of outraged chastity! In the cell where justice confines him for a dastardly murder, he is visited by the President, and receives expressions of sympathy from men high in station, who have wives, and daughters and homes. Ought we to such a state of society?"

A HEALING ACT IN KANSAS.—The Territorial Legislature of Kansas at its recent session passed an act which is published as follows:

SECTION 1. That no criminal offense hereto fore committed in the Counties of Lykins, Linn, Bourbon, McGee, Allen and Anderson, growing out of any political difference of opinion, shall be subject to any prosecution in any complaint or indictment in any Court whatsoever in this Territory.

SEC. 2. That all criminal actions now commenced growing out of political difference of opinion, shall be dismissed.

SEC. 3. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved Feb. 11, 1859.

S. MEDARY,
Governor of Kansas Territory.

ABOUT six o'clock Thursday morning, a thief broke into the house of Mr Brennan, corner of Lenhard and Linn streets, in New York, and in the course of his explorations entered the apartment of Mrs. Monck, Brennan's sister, who sprang from bed, seized the burglar, and held him until assistance arrived, when he was handed over to the police.

DESPERATE MUTINY IN AN OHIO JAIL.—The Cincinnati Commercial states that on the 7th inst. as jailor McLean, of the county jail, open the door of the main cell to admit Mr. Boswell, the turnkey, Bootey Chesebrough, a large muscular rascal, who is awaiting trial for counterfeiting, leaped upon him and after a desperate struggle succeeded in floring him. McLean, finding himself overpowered, and fearing that he might be murdered, drew his pistol and presented it directly in the prisoner's face and fired; but Chesebrough dodged his head sideways, and the ball merely plowed up the skin on the side of one of his cheek bones. Being thus admonished, he left his savage foe master and retreated to his cell. Meantime Ab Cross, another desperate character, was shut through the open door with a long knife in his hand, and, according to his confession, struck at Chesebrough. The turnkey met him and struck him a heavy blow with his bunch of keys, failing, however, to knock him down. Cross assailed him furiously, and Boswell being unarmed, was obliged to retreat. At that instant the officers in charge of the chain-gang appeared, and Cross not being accosted as he expected, beat a hasty retreat to his cell.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

JOB WORK. We are prepared to execute job printing of all kinds, in the latest style and at as cheap rates as at any office in the State. Our friends who are in want of Cards, Bill Heads, Shop Bills, Blanks, Circulars or any thing of the kind, will we hope bear us in mind.

RATHER A FAILURE. Among the interesting incidents of the late city election was an attempt of our hunker fri ends to steal ammunition march on the Republicans of Ward 7 and oust our friend Wingate from the Warden's chair. The democratic leadership is that ward is partic ularly strong and active—Amos M. Roberts, Postmaster Jones, John A. Peters and others being generally ready and anxious for a fight. On this occasion they laid their plans to carry the ward, and were to begin with tipping out the Republican warden.—Though they could do it easy—as the voters are generally scarce during the first hour or two. So thirty or forty of them were on hand, at the ward room some time before the hour of meeting—every one of them indulging an inward chuckle at the surprise they would give the "Blacks,"—and the Postmaster's broad, good-humored face beaming with especial might in contemplation of the excellent joke with which the election was thus to open, and the d'smay which would at once seize the opposition of "democracy." Catch a weasel asleep, however. At sharp nine an overwhelming phalanx of Republicans turned up, astonishment part of the programme to the other way.—The election of Warden proceeded, and before over eighty votes were cast,—of which a quantum sufficit was for the indomitable Wingate, under whose auspices the Republicans never lost a fair fight, and have never, in fact, been surprised. The Ward 7 contest of Monday resulted in a majority of about 60 votes for the Republican ticket.

In Ward 5 there was also a very earnest contest in which the Republicans acquitted themselves with much honor—coming out of the fight with a major ty of 75—a n increase of 25 over the majority of last fall.

THE PAST WINTER. From the diary of one of our citizens, we learn that there have been during the four months past, twenty-one snow storms and three rain storms. The stormy days were as follows: Nov. 7, 14, and 20; Dec. 5, 6, 13, 17, 21, 27, and 31; Jan. 4, 7, 11, 18, 22, and 28; Feb. 3, 5, 9, 19, and 26; March 4, 8 and 12. Good sleighing every day from Nov. 14 up to last week.

A remarkably rainy storm commenced yesterday forenoon, and the remainder of the snow in the vicinity will probably soon leave us.

THE MELTING OF THE SNOWS.—The rain of yesterday was copious—and should the warm weather continue, a heavy freshet and speedy breaking up of the ice may be anticipated.—There are some apprehensions of damage by the rising freshets—especially on the Kennebec, where the body of snow is very heavy and the river is much fuller to rise than the Penobscot, and also Hallowell's pitch higher. The ice is still strong in both rivers, and is suddenly broken up across during s would be almost inevitable.

MAINE VESSEL AND CREW LOST.—A brig bound ashore on Key Cruz al Padre, 2d inst. and it is supposed went to pieces. Crew stood to be lost. She was lumber laden, and from Machias, Me.

REMARKABLE FATALITY. A correspondent of the Jeffersonian, at Prescott, Ia., relates a case of fatality in the family of Mr. Thomas Vance of London, (Lenawee Co.) Three of his children were buried on the 2d inst. Just a week from that day, Jane, the only remaining daughter aged 11 years, was taken with a violent pain in the head and back, causes, twitching of the limbs, contortions of the face, followed in a short time with tremor and other partial paralysis.—The little girl was entirely helpless, the boy could not move his arms. Sunday morning, John, aged 20, was taken with like symptoms, and the doctor who had been called to see the others, administered a powerful emetic and pronounced him in a fair way of recovering. Sunday night June died. Monday afternoon John became paralyzed, but still was not considered in danger. Monday night Williofied. John requested to be raised up that he might see his brother die, and when all was over sank back upon his pillow, exclaiming that he too, was dying, and expired in about an hour. The physician pronounced the disease which thus swept away nearly a whole family typhoid fever of a very malignant type.

AUGUSTA.—The Republicans carried Augusta on Monday last, electing James W. North, Esq., Mayor, by 151 majority; all the Aldermen but one, and nearly all the Councilmen.

SERIOUS LOSS.—An avalanche of snow slid from the roof of the stable of Mr. William C. Brown in Skowhegan, on Saturday evening at about 9 o'clock, and falling on and connected with the stable, demolished a large number of carriages causing damage, we learn, to the amount of $600 or $700. Against such a loss we presume there was no insurance.—Portland Advertiser.

The Machias river is now free from ice, and vessels are arriving at Machias.

COLD-BLOODED MURDER AT HARTFORD.—A shocking murder of a man by a divorced husband, was committed in Hartford on Sunday, it appears from the account in the Courant that Christopher Colson, a well-known flat dealer, in Hartford, while, some few months since press of a bill of divorce from him, on the grounds of habitual drunkenness and cruelty, had eaten that time followed her with continual menaces, and frequently publicly threatened to take her life and to kill her mother-and sister. On Sunday afternoon Colson was sitting in the basement of his brother's residence, when his former wife, who lived in the room. She was followed by Colson, who endeavored to take her hand; but she repulsed him with the remark that "her hand was now her own, and she did not wish to have anything to do with him." She then attempted to leave the room, when he followed her, caught her by the dress behind, and cut her throat from the right ear to a point just below the chin, making two horrible gashes, severing the carotid artery, and partially severing the jugular vein. She died in a very few minutes.

Colson remarked that he hoped she was satisfied," threw his knife under a table, and went into a pantry where he commenced eating pies. He was shortly after awards arrested, but not, however, until he had swallowed a powerful dose of opium, evidently with the purpose of putting an end to his life." Colson had sometimes done a large business, but his habitual habits of drinking and gambling led him down to the lowest round of the fortune's ladder to ruin. The deceased was 32 years of age, and leave a three sons.

CALLING OF THE WRONG PLACE.—The Argus has the following:

Last week a gentleman enquired at the Post Office window, for his advertised letter." The clerk looked over the letters and informed the gentleman that there was none for him. "There certainly must be," was the reply, "for I saw it advertised this morning." The clerk then looked over all the letters that had been advertised which remained in the office, and also over the advertised list, and again informed the gentleman that there was no letter in the office for him, and that none had been advertised. "Do you suppose I cannot read my own name," answered the gentleman. "I saw it in the Advertiser this morning." The clerk then told him that instead of a letter, it was the razor for the past year, that had not been paid, which were advertised in the Advertiser. A new light seemed to strike upon the gentleman, and he left.

SNOW IN PORTLAND. The amount of snow in Portland this winter has been larger than in this city. The Advertiser says that the accumulated ice and snow in some of the principal streets was four feet in depth previous to the recent thaw.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.—After a thorough trial by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself to be the Medicine of the age, and has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best family medicine ever introduced. Sold by Druggists.

Bronchites and Coughs, which so often terminate fatally in our northern latitudes, are easily arrested in a majority of cases, if recourse is had to the Wild Cherry preparation of Dr. Wistar. Abundant evidence of this fact has been given.

For several hours this morning the President and Postmaster General were in consultation with the principal officers of the Post Office Department relative to the condition of affairs, which were subsequently considered by the Cabinet. The consul refused to certify to the clean bill of health given by the collector of that port in consequence of which he was detained 25 days and narrowly escaped shipwreck. This allegation is denied, the consul was actuated by a feeling of private malice or revenge owing to the unsatisfactory manner in which the consul of the British consulate Commerce by the owners of the Thomas Watson for damage done to her during a norther by the former which was considered by the British Consul.—The owner of the Watson has preferred a claim at $10,000 against the British government.

The latter has since gone north, and it was said was bound to Paraguay, to render his good offices to Lopez. A SHOE-PEGGING MACHINE. In the State of Massachusetts alone, the manufacture of boots and shoes employs annually to upwards of $50,000,000, and when we take into consideration the vast number of boots and shoes made in the Southern States, this Union, we shall at once appreciate the importance of an invention which tends to relieve the manufacturer of much labor. Machinery has of late been made to do almost anything, but to apply machinery to pegging boots and shoes, has baffled the ingenuity of the entire race of inventors until recently, when Mr. L. F. Sturtevant hit upon his plan. We examined this achievement the other day, at Smith & Bigelow's, No. 10 Jacob street. We confess to a most delightful surprise when we beheld a little machine, standing by itself on a bench, and a couple of boys, who had a pair of boots, and peg it in a neat and workmanlike manner, two pegs all around, in less than half a minute. The most skilful shoemaker would have required ten minutes to perform the same task.

The shoe, fitted on a last, ready for pegging, is placed in a rest on the machine, and attached to the machine, and brought up against it by the heel of the operator. The machine being then put in motion, the last is clamped firmly, by a treadle, and the first peg driven home. After a few seconds of rattling and clattering, off came the boot, with the shoe firmly pegged. The machine was next moved a few feet, where we might see how the thing was done. There was not much of it, the man in charge remarked, and the greatest wonder was how so much work could be accomplished by so little machinery.—N. Y. Evening Post.

A certain Chicago doctor, was lately at Hannibal, Missouri. Going to a barber's shop in the evening, a flickering tallow candle was the only light. "Look out, Doctor!" was uttered one of the party, "that nigger will cut your throat on the dark, and pocket your watch into the bargain." "Pshaw," replies the Doctor, "don't you see that he has a very delicate sense of touch, and I observe positively has no fear?" I didn't like his looks when we came in, but I not satisfied myself that it is not a perfect gentleman." The mulatto took it as a high compliment and grubbed compliantly.—Post Express.

A BOUNCING DOCTOR.—On Friday evening of last week, while Prof. Holstead was delivering his valedictory address at the Commencement, held at the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, he was interrupted by a Dr. Jordan from Kentucky, who protruded the Professor. As he refused to sit down, and insisted on the interruption, an effort was made to put him out, whereupon he drew a three barrel revolver, but was prevented from using it. The weapon was wrested from him, upon which he drew an American stiletto, which was also taken away. He was then taken to the watch house, where he was fined $200 and $1,25 costs, but not having the funds, he was sent to the watch house for the night, and next morning, his father had him released by giving the necessary bail.

Fancy a Ballgreen gun hitting, within thirty yards, a sparrow! Well, that is the feat attempted to be performed at six matches daily, at the Norfolk navy yard, and does it ninety-nine times out of twenty?—Hard to escape the pursuit of such a decent vocation.

The keeper of a lager beer saloon in St. Louis drank one hundred and fifty glasses of lager beer on Monday last, but when the hours of 8 A. M. and 12 P. M., for a wager of $25 and the price of the beer.

To the Citizens of Bangor.

CITY OF BANGOR, January, 859.

MR. LEWIS WATERMAN, proposes to whiten the Pipes of our city upon a plan which will mainly obviate the necessity of re-assembling after each alteration of the position of new buildings, to each street as to be carefully measured, and the whitening be arranged with reference to such probable movements. We come with recommendations from citizens and towns where he has heretofore performed a similar service, which are satisfactory to us. It is hoped that the citizens of Bangor will avail themselves of this opportunity for effecting the proposed improvement, the expense being small.

PURELY VEGETABLE!
THE
Great English Alterative
....AND....
Humor Eradicator,

DISCOVERED by an eminent English Surgeon, after years of study.

This Medicine is unquestionably the best Alterative ever used. Purifying the Blood, giving new and healthy impetus to the functions of the system, and rejuvenating the infirm. It eradicates, at once, all kinds of Humors, Cutaneous Eruptions, Cancerous affections, Scaly Eruptions, Leprosy, and all kindred diseases, which have their origin in impurities of the blood.

For Scrofula it may properly be regarded as a Specific. No other preparation known to the world so promptly and effectual. Cures the fearful malady. Lincoln's Water Proof Blacking,

AND OTHER PRESERVATIVE

Physician on the fallacious conviction that it is the herb Witch Hazel that is the preservative in Lincoln's Blacking, but chemical analysis proves that it is the Oil of Tar, which is the only property out to water proof. After having had 24 years of the most flattering success in the branches of the business, we have at last succeeded in producing a Blacking which will not only preserve the leather, but will make it water proof. It also contains the ingredients necessary to soften and preserve leather, and will make either water proof outfit, and will not injure the finest kid. It will make either water proof outfit, and will not injure the finest kid. It will make either water proof outfit, and will not injure the finest kid.

Positively worth twice as much as any other Blacking in use.

I have used it for three years in a large family with the best results, and have worked in a wet tannery where my boots constantly in water, and have found that my feet were dry, and that the leather was therefore in a state of preservation. I recommend it to the public as the best and cheapest article in the market.

THE LUXURY AND PROFIT OF HONEY MAKING

Torrey's Bee Hive.

THE subscribers having purchased the right of making and selling Davis' Patent Bee Hive for the County of Penobscot, Lincoln and Aroostook, respectfully call the attention of Bee keepers to the same, and solicit a share of their patronage.

This Bee Hive is the only one which has ever been offered to the public, which has not been tested by practical bee keepers, and found to be a decided improvement upon the old fashioned box hive, and all other patent hives now in use.

It is the only hive which has ever been awarded a premium at any of the State Fairs, and has received the highest premium at every Fair where it has been exhibited
